Subject: Congratulations to the FY20 Farm to School Grantees of the Southeast Region!

To the Southeast Region FY 20 Farm to School Grantee Cohort:

On behalf of the Office of Community Food Systems and the USDA-FNS Southeast Regional Office, I wanted to send you a congratulatory email on receiving your new USDA Farm to School Grant award! I am the Southeast Farm to School Regional Lead and will be your point of contact for support, guidance, and programmatic questions for the duration of your grant. I am so excited to promote your work and continue to help you advance and support your farm to school efforts!

I am excited to announce that 29 organizations across 8 Southeast Region states will receive $2,210,560.38 through the FY 2020 USDA Farm to School Grant Program! The Southeast Region was awarded in the top 3 of the highest number of Farm to School Grants of all USDA-FNS regions! Congratulations to all of the state and local agencies, non-profit organizations, and school districts who will be receiving Grants this year.

As a reminder, if you received an Implementation Grant, Dawn Addison (dawn.addison@usda.gov) will be supporting you on managing and enrolling in all of the financial matters pertaining to the grant. If you have a Planning Grant or State Agency Grant, Kimberly Campbell Shields (kimberly.shields@usda.gov) will be providing you with financial support and guidance. You also will be receiving ongoing communications from our National Office, who will typically reach out from the following email address: farmtoschool@usda.gov. Please feel free to 'cc me in future communications so that we can continue to be in touch over the upcoming months as we work together to ensure that you have all the information needed to dive into your projects. Additional information will be provided regarding upcoming onboarding webinars, opportunities to connect and engage with other grantees, and when/how to attend the virtual Grantee Gathering.

I look forward to working and connecting with you soon!

Congratulations,

J. Joy Nolan
